

Activity Sheet: Matching

Topic: Forests and the Environment

Instructions: Match the descriptions (left) with the corresponding forest classification by placing the number on the line.

- |   |                                    |
|---|------------------------------------|
| 1. Forest that shows human disturbance and has broadleaf trees; an example is the Bull Head Forest Reserve.         | A. Closed Broadleaf Forest ____    |
| 2. Grows in salty water; trees roots grow above the ground  | B. Disturbed Broadleaf Forest ____ |
| 3. Forest which grows up to 30m in height with trees that have stilt roots  | C. Secondary Forest ____           |
| 4. Primary forest with closed canopy and minimal human disturbance.   | D. Short Open Dry Forest ____      |
| 5. Shows significant human disturbance; referred to as regen forest.  | E. Tall Open Dry Forest ____       |
| 6. Forest with trees crowns that are not interlocked; trees can grow up to 15m                                      | F. Swamp Forest ____               |
| 7. Forest with shrubs and brush taht grow between 1-5m; Lovers' Leap Forest Reserve in St. Elizabeth is an example. | G. Mangrove Forest ____            |